Training with certification
PECB ISO 9001 certification : quality Management
Body
Within the ISO 9000 family of standards, ISO 9001 is one of the key references in the field of quality management. It applies to all organizations, including SMEs and small businesses, regardless of their industry sector. To date, more than 1 million companies and organizations across 170 countries are ISO 9001 certified. This ISO 9001 Lead Implementer training course will provide you with the knowledge and prerequisites needed to guide an organization in deploying a quality management approach and, more specifically, in implementing a QMS compliant with ISO 9001. You will review all the requirements of the ISO 9001 standard and strengthen your skills as a QSE manager or project leader. In addition, this course will present the benefits of implementing a QMS for your organization and the advantages of obtaining the ISO 9001 individual certification. At the end of this session, you will be prepared to take the official ISO 9001 Lead Implementer exam. Successfully passing the exam will allow you to earn one of the four PECB ISO 9001 Implementer certifications. By becoming certified, you demonstrate that you possess the practical knowledge and technical skills required to implement the ISO 9001 standard within an organization.
